Or how you can Save Money.

In our former articles we have dwelt on the value of money down, and the desirability of having cash. The great question with so many people, is, how to get the cash and how to keep it after getting it. One says I have so many needs that my money will not purchase all I want or must have. In answer to this one we would suggest that you patronize the Bargain Store and make your money go to the furthest limit possible. We are at your service to help you. Another one and by far the great majority have their money spent before they get it. This is the class that needs the most urgent being the most urgent help. How can I buy for cash when I have no money? Do you advise that I do not pay what I owe? No, indeed.
